Announcement of Community Organizations Development Institute (Public Organization)

Subject: Policy of not accepting gifts or any kind of gratuities from performing duties

(No Gift Policy)

Fiscal Year 2025

The Community Organizations Development Institute (Public Organization) is committed to the principles of good governance in its operations, prioritizing the interests of the nation and its people. It adheres to the values of fairness, integrity, transparency, and accountability as core principles in carrying out its responsibilities. Additionally, it encourages and supports its officials to have the courage to reject unethical practices and to stand firm for what is right. Therefore, to declare our intention of performing our duties honestly, integrity, transparency, and accountability, and to encourage a culture of anti-corruption among its officials —thereby building trust, credibility, and reliability with the public

The Community Organizations Development Institute (Public Organization) hereby declares its intention to be an organization where the Director and its officials will not accept gifts or any kind of gratuities (No Gift Policy) at any time, whether before, during, or after performing their duties, or during festivals or special occasions that could potentially lead to corruption or misconduct, and will uphold their stance against all forms of corruption to establish values of integrity and move towards becoming an organization of virtue, transparency, resilience, and sustainability.

It is hereby announced and to adhered

Announced on 28 November B.E. 2567 (2024)

(Mr. Krisada Somprasong)
