No Gift Policy

Fiscal Year 2026

The Community Organizations Development Institute (Public Organization) (CODI) recognizes the importance of good governance and integrity in public administration, including adherence to the principles of transparency, honesty, morality, and accountability that foster public trust and confidence in operational performance. CODI is committed to encouraging and supporting its executives and personnel to perform their duties with responsibility and to uphold professional ethics, demonstrating honesty, integrity, and discipline, in order to ensure that public service is carried out with transparency, righteousness, and accountability.

To demonstrate commitment to operating with integrity, transparency, and accountability and to promote a strong ethical culture in the prevention of corruption all personnel of CODI must strictly comply with this announcement.

CODI hereby declares that it is an agency committed to moral governance and the performance of duties with transparency and integrity in accordance with good governance principles. Therefore, CODI establishes a policy on the prohibition of accepting gifts or any benefits given on the basis of official duties (No Gift Policy), whether directly or indirectly, in all forms and on every occasion, except in cases of official necessity or where refusal is not possible due to local customs or traditions. In such cases, the item received must be declared and transferred to CODI as organizational property, and all actions must be carried out with honesty and integrity.

All executives and staff members of CODI are required to strictly adhere to this announcement.

Effective from the fiscal year 2026 onwards.

Issued on ๘ December 2025
